What Information We Collect and How We Use It

The information that we collect on our website comes under two general categories:

- Personally Identifiable Information
- Aggregate Information

Personally Identifiable Information

This refers to information that lets us know who you are or things specifically about you. To avail certain services on our website, Customers / Direct Sellers are required to provide certain information for the registration process namely: – a) name, b) email address, c) sex, d) age, e) PIN code, f) credit card or debit card details g) medical records and history h) sexual orientation, i) biometric information, j) password etc., and / or occupation, interests, and the like. The Information as supplied by the Customers / Direct Sellers enables us to improve our website and provide you the most user-friendly experience.

All required information is service dependent and we may use the above said information to, maintain, protect, and improve our services (including advertising services) and for developing new services

Such information will not be considered as sensitive if it is freely available and accessible in the public domain or is furnished under the Right to Information Act, 2005 or any other law for the time being in force.

Aggregate Information

This refers to information that does not distinguish you as a particular individual. This information includes your browser and operating system type, your IP address, URL (Uniform Source Locator) of the website that directed you to our site and any search terms you enter on our site. Such information is aggregated by our web server to monitor the activities on the website and evaluate its performance. This helps us improve the features and functions on the website to provide you a satisfactory user experience. We might compile, publish, store, collect, promote, disclose, or use any Aggregate Information. We generally do not correlate any Personally Identifiable Information with Aggregate Information. In case we do this, it will be protected as per the terms mentioned for Personally Identifiable Information in this Privacy Policy.

Cookies

Aown World through this website uses “cookies” to enable you to sign in into our services and to help personalize your online experience. As you browse, we may install cookies (tiny text files stored on your hard disk by a web page server) in your browser. Cookies cannot harm your computer and they do not contain any personally identifiable information. One of the primary purposes of cookies is to store your preferences and other information on your computer in order to save your time by eliminating the need to repeatedly enter the same information and to display your personalized content on your later visits to website. Cookies also help us to improve our website and to deliver a better and more personalized service. Among other things, they enable us:

- To estimate our audience size and usage pattern.
- To store information about your preferences, and so allow us to customize our website according to your individual interests.
- To increase the speed of your searches.
- To recognize you when you return to our website.

Security

We are committed to ensuring that your information is secure. In order to prevent unauthorized access or disclosure, we have put in place suitable physical, electronic, and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online. It is your sole responsibility to safeguard the password created for your online account. In case you suspect that your password has been compromised, contact Aown World via email at info@aownworld.com as soon as possible. Since your Customer / Direct Seller account and password are specific to you, you take full responsibility for any and all activity conducted on our site with your ID and password.
